

You are a Millennial if you have reached young adulthood in the early 21st Century. Your Millennial Quotient influences your financial behaviour. It is high if diversity appeals to you. You like to have transparency in processes and are open to new ideas and conversations. It is time to make this work and start investing for a financially secure future.

LESSON 2: It is always beneficial to seek goal-based financial advice. Don't base your investment decision on stories of exceptional returns by friends, relatives.

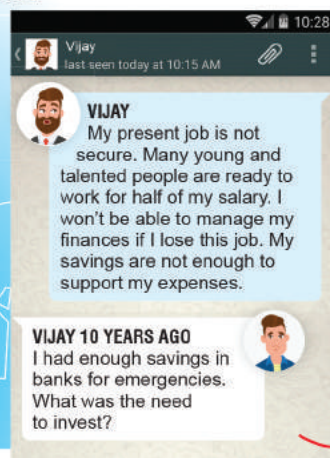

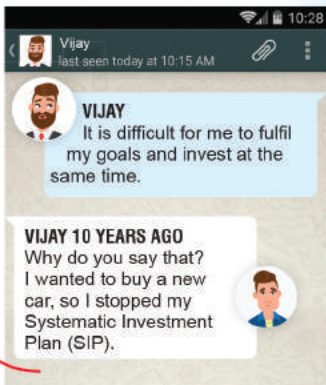

LESSON 3: Equity-based investments witness volatility in the short-run. However, in the long-run, the markets march forward. During volatility, stay calm.

COMMON MONEY MISTAKES THAT YOUTH MAKE

You might have learned to build a successful career. But, have you learned the art of building a financially secure future? Here is the story of Vijay. He started earning when he was 25 years old. Vijay is 35 now. He is reflecting upon the money mistakes that he had made, and its impact on his finances.

LESSON 4:

Instead of stopping your SIP, you can have a separate portfolio for every goal. You can even name your portfolio as 'My New Car Fund'.

LESSON 5:

You can invest in Liquid Funds for your emergencies. Liquid Funds don't have a lock-in period and can offer better returns and Tax benefits than Bank Deposits.
