

TIME IN OR TIMING THE MARKET: WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

SWATANTRA KUMAR EXPLAINS: It's impossible for any investor to always buy at the market's trough and sell at the crest. Even the best fund manager or the best trader can not always time the market perfectly. So successful investors always say that to create wealth it's important how much time you remain in the market rather than timing the market. It means to create wealth you should stay invested for a long time rather than try to time the market.
